Rules and guidelines for contest

The children's essay contest for school age children will be held in conjunction with the 2008 Chanute Air Museum Festival of Trees. Essay entry forms can be picked up at the Chanute Air Museum or on line at www.aeromuseum.org. Each essay should be submitted with an entry form including name, phone number and grade level. Deadline for entries will be November 21, 2008. Only one entry per child. The subject of the essay is "American Christmas" and should be no more than 100 words. The essay will be displayed at the Museum during the event, November 30, 2008 - December 6, 2008. Judging will be complete by December 6, 2008, on three grade categories: Kindergarten through second grade, third through fifth grade and sixth through eighth grade. Prizes will be announced and winners will be contacted by phone.
